

Manual 2: Velociraptor Training

Training Specifications

- Diet:
 - Morning: Raw meat chunks mixed with bone marrow.
 - Afternoon: Live prey such as rabbits or birds to stimulate hunting instincts.
 - Evening: A mix of organ meats and specially formulated supplements.
- Training Schedule:
 - Morning: Speed drills with mechanical prey and sprint courses (1 hour).
 - Afternoon: Agility and hunting exercises in a large enclosure with obstacles (2 hours).
 - Evening: Coordination drills involving pack hunting simulations (1 hour).
- Training Location:
 - Large, secured outdoor enclosure with varied terrain and obstacles.
- Trainer Requirements:
 - Must be a paleontologist or a dinosaur behavior specialist.
 - Physically fit and experienced in handling large, aggressive animals.
 - Tools: Meat rewards, mechanical prey, clicker, and protective gear.
- Training Frequency:
 - Three times a day as per the training schedule.
- Sleep Schedule:
 - 8 hours of uninterrupted sleep in a dark, quiet enclosure.

Harnessing Powers

- Speed: Mechanical prey and sprint courses.
- Agility: Obstacle courses and hunting exercises.
- Coordination: Pack hunting simulations.

Trainer Preparation

- Tools Needed: Meat rewards, mechanical prey, clicker, protective gear.
- Targets: Mechanical prey, obstacle courses, live prey for hunting simulations.
- Incentives: High-quality meat treats and social interactions.

Capture Manual

- Capture Techniques:
 - Trap Setup: Large pitfall traps disguised with natural foliage.
 - Lure Methods: Use live bait tied to a stake near the trap.
 - Timing: During feeding times when they are most focused on food.
- Weaknesses:
 - Vulnerable to strong tranquilizers.

- Distracted by loud, sudden noises.